ALSO-Cornerstone, Inc. provides mental health and addiction services through a range of school- and community-based prevention, education, treatment, and recovery programs; an outreach and engagement project that attempts to engage homeless individuals who do not currently utilize shelters or other community-based supports and bring them into the social service network; an outpatient mental health clinic that provides psychiatric outpatient services on a sliding fee scale, and nine residential and supportive housing programs for individuals and families who are severely disabled with chronic mental illness and/or addictions. ALSO-Cornerstone, Inc.'s mission focuses on helping individuals and families affected by mental illness and/or addictions attain stability, recovery and independence and lead productive lives in the community. Its goals are directed at full integration of clients into the life of the community, and its dedicated staff works to prevent the need for hospitalization and loss of independence during acute episodes of illness.
